Pleasing Incident in the Voyage of Force of Guards in Service of Health

On Board the Transport Grant, Approaching Colombo, Ceylon, February 25.-The trip of the Grant from New York to Manila is likely to be an achievement as noteworthy for an army transport as was the voyage of the Oregon around the born for warship. Almost perfect weather from the start has helped the Grant to make a ecord which her sister ships which are following will find it hard to equal. From New York to Colombo the speed has averaged twelve knots an hour, a rate which the officers expect to keep up to the Philippines. On Sunday, February 19, while the Grant was leaving the brown, barren rocks of the easternmost cape of Africa, she overtook a black-hulled whaleback

Signal flags went up to the mastheads of both ships, flapping a nautical greeting. Then the soldiers in blue, who crowded the decks and rigging, saw a sailor climb down the side of the Clan Robertson, which was the freighter's name, and hardly a minute afterward tall white letters spelling "Good Luck" gleamed out on the black hull. Beecond word was finished by the paint brush, all the Americans had guessed its meaning, and instantly a hundred cameras were brought to bear, a great cheer rose, and the band broke from an operation air into "God Save the Queen."

There was doubt whether the music could carry the distance separating the ships, but soon a faint cheer came over the water from the Briton. Another sailor ran aloft at top speed to bring down the British flag while the stars and stripes dispend in reals. while the stars and stripes dipped in reply Afterward the band played the "Star Span gled Banner," and through glasses the crew of the Clan Robertson could be seen standing on her decks with uncovered heads. Finally the English skipper sent up a string of flags spelling "Good luck in earnest," and the ships separated with repeated

Washington's birthday was announced by a salute of thirteen guns. The band con-cert in the evening closed with "America," a thousand voices from the cabin, decks and forecastle taking up the chorus and follow-ing with three cheers for the United States.

RESULT OF DESPONDENCY. Mrs. Maud Barry Attempts to Commit

While suffering from a fit of despondency, Mrs. Maud Barry, aged twenty-two years, attempted to take her life about 7 o'clock this morning, at the home of her father, John Taylor, No. 205 K street southeast. The agency used was a bottle of disinfectant, which was composed in part of chlor'de of lime. The woman soon became very ill, and Dr. G. V. Clark was sent for. He administered proper remedies, and about noon she was pronounced doing well. Mr. Taylor, father of Mrs. Barry, said here was no reason for his daughter to attempt to take her own life, as, although the husband of the latter is away from the city and unable to provide for his wife at this time, he (Mr. Taylor) supports her and the two children of the couple. The latter are aged five years and nine months, respectively. The older little one is now sick with scarlet fever, and it is thought that Mrs. Barry became worn out in nursing it.

DAMAGED BY FIRE

Eckington Mill Property Injured to the Extent of $40,000.

BELIEVED TO BE OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

Two Employes of the Firm Arrested on Suspicion.

AMOUNT OF INSURANCE

The Eckington Mills, at the intersection of Florida avenue and Brentwood road, the property of S. S. Daish & Sons, were damaged by fire yesterday morning to the extent of about $40,000. Two members of the fire department, Foreman Frank J. Wagner of No. 7 Engine Company and Tony Marshall of Truck A, were injured, and two drivers for the milling company were arrested on suspicion of arson. Messrs. Daish & Sons are engaged in the flour, feed and fuel business, the buildings used by them at the point in question being a large mill, grain elevator and coal sheds and stables. About 8:45 a.m. fire was discovered in the hay room of the large plant by Mr. E. G. Daish, who pulled box 617, in front of the building, to which Engine Companies 12 and 6 and Truck D responded. Assistant Chief Belt, upon his arrival, believed a disastrous fire was threatening, and he pulled a special alarm, bring-ing Engine Companies 7, 10 and 3 and Truck A to the scene. Such excellent work was done by the firemen, under the direc-tion of Assistant Chief Belt, that the fire was prevented from reaching the grain elewas prevented from reaching the grain ele-vator, which at times seemed surely doomed. In about two hours' time the flames were under control, but the engines were kept at work until late in the afternoon throwing water on the hay, straw and coal, which smoldered and flamed at intervals Itemized Statement.

A railroad trestle switch used for running freight cars to the establishment was damaged to a considerable extent. A egal car on the trestle works was destroyed and several tons of coal were burned. Thirty horses of the firm were safely removed from the burning stables. All the buildings adjoining the elevator were seriously damaged, it being estimated that the following stock was destroyed: 800 tons of straw, 20 tons of peat-moss, 1,600 tons of hay, 100 barrels of salt 600 tons of coal, 20 cords of wood, 100 tons of bran, and the track scale, which cost $1,000.

It is stated that insurance on the building and stock, so far as known, amounted to $25,600, distributed as follows: Riggs Fire Insurance Company, $15,060; Home Insurance Company, two policies, $4,000; Citizens' Insurance Company, Pittsburg, $2,500; National Fire Insurance Company, Hart-ford, $1.500; Fire Association of Philadelphia, $1,000, and Norwich Union of England, $1,000.

During the progress of the fire Foreman

Wagner wrenched his back by falling while engaged in working among the burning hay and straw. He was assisted to a private residence nearby, and was later taken home by Assistant Chief Belt, where he received medical attention. His injury is believed to be slight, and it is expected he will resume be sight, and it is expected he will resume his duties in a few days. Fireman Mar-shall had a hand somewhat disabled. It is said the fire was of an incendiary origin, and two colored men, William Lee and William Moon, employes of the firm, were arrested by the officers of the eighth police precinct on suspicion of being implicated.

Mr. Daish today informed Chief Parris of the fire department that he estimated his loss by the fire at $40,000, and stated further that he would be unable for the present to say exactly how much insurance was carried on the plant and stock by his firm.
William Lee and William Moon, both col-nen had guilty knowledge of the cause of ored, are under arrest at the eighth pre-cinct station on a charge preferred by Mr.

Daish.

RAIN TONIGHT. Probably Fair Weather Tuesday, Fresh Northerly Winds.

Forecast till 8 p.m. Tuesday.-For the District of Columbia, eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, rain this afternoon and tonight. Tuesday probably fair; fresh to brisk northeast to north winds. Weather conditions and general forecast.

The only depression on the map is the southwest one, which has been remarkably persistent during the past four days. It is central this morning in extreme eastern Texas. Marked high pressure and unseasonably cold weather prevail throughout the west and northwest, the temperatures ranging from 8 to 45 degrees below the nor mal. At Cheyenne the seasonal record of 16 degrees below zero was equaled. There have been local rains and snows in New England and showers in the south Atlantic and gulf states, while in the middle slope and central Rocky mountain region there were general snows. There were also light snows in the lower Missouri valley. For the twenty-four hours ending 8 a.m. Sunday there were rains and snows from the guif and south Atlantic states northward, and snows in the upper lake region, west and northwest. In the Pacific coast and plateau region fair weather has been general, except in Utah, where there was light snow Sunday. Showers are indicated this afternoon or tonight in the middle and south Atlantic and gulf states, while on Tuesday the weather will be mostly fair in all districts from Texas eastward and northeastward.

It will be much colder tonight in the west gulf states, and colder Tuesday in the gulf and south Atlantic states generally, except North Carolina and southern Florida. Fresh to brisk east to north winds will orevail on the Atlantic coast.
